DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

- 1. Claims 13-18 allowed
- 1. Claims 19 and 20 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 2. Claims 6-11 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Goo (5,677,215) in view of Lin et al. (5,933,732) further in view of Foss et al. (6,751,111)

Regarding Claims 6-11, Goo discloses a method of fabricating a nonvolatile semiconductor memory device where in Fig. 4, n+ heavily doped region 18b is situated inside the p+ heavily doped region 19 which is situated on the substrate 10. Another heavily doped n+ region is formed on the substrate 10. The doped regions 18a, 18b and 19 are adjacent are situated on the source and drain regions of the gate 17 and adjacent to each other via lightly doped region 13. Goo fails to disclose the required gate extensions between the doped regions and the required common source/gate configuration

Application/Control Number: 10/707,703

Art Unit: 2826

However, Lin et al. disclose non-volatile devices with P-channel EFPROM devices as injector where in Fig. 7, gate 30 has extensions 30" that are located between doped regions a-e. Furthermore, Foss et al. disclose a high density memory cell where in Fig. 7 and in column 8 the required common gate/source configuration is disclosed.

It would have been obvious to one of having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include the required gate extensions between doped regions and the required common source/gate configuration in Goo as taught by Lin et al. and Fass et al., respectively, in order to have a read-only memory device with increased reliability.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
